HIGHWAYMEN GET CLOTHES AND CASH

Three Washington Men Held Up in Western Suburb of Baltimore.

Daltimore, Md., July 13.—Washington suffered at the hands of Baltimore when three visitors from the capital city were held up at the business end of a revolver by a trio of monumental citizens, their valuables stolen and their clothes striped from their backs to cover the bodies of the local thieves. The holdup and outdoor-dressing-roomact occurred in Lexington Street, not far from Calverton Road, in the western submys, between 2 and 3 o'clock

Saturday the Prairie picked up a fragmentary wireless message, which indicates that the steamer Venus, in the Madrig service, had been captured, This message was decidedly vaugue, however, and Commander Witherspoon, of the Prairie, does not believe that the Venus was taken. In his opinion the message referred to the San Jacinto, a small steamer in the Madriz service.

The Prairie, which has been detailed at Bluefields for the past two months, arrived at New Orleans to-night. The Prairie will remain here for a week or more, awaiting the arrival of the monitor aphirite, from Norfolk. The monitor is to be turned over to the State naval reserves of Missouri, and the Prairie will carry the crew of the Amphirite facery the crew of the Amphirite back to Norfolk.

Interstate Commerce Commission Considers Commutation Rades.

Washington, D. C., July 13.—The controversy over commutation rates between 500,000 New York City "commuters" and seven great railroad lines, is occupying the attention of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The question immediately at issue was whether the commission should assume jurisdiction over the commutation passenger rates of the railways operating out of New York City into and through New Jersey, and thus by inference over commutation passenger rates throughout the country.

The proceeding was the first instituted under the recently enacted railroad law. It was begin by the Railgoad Commission of New Jersey, and

The carriers operating out of New York City recently increased by an average of about 18 per cent. their commutation passenger rates. The proposed new rates were postponed, upon request of the commission, until july 20 to afford time to inquire into the new law. The New Jersey officials requested the commission under the new law. The New Jersey officials requested the commission to suspend the proposed rates until the question of the reasonableness of the advances could be determined.

The discussion covered, therefore, both questions—jurisdiction and reabout the proposed rates until the questions—jurisdiction and reabout the proposed rates until the questions—for the residence of Mrs. P.
